

REVISION OF GOVERNMENT'S WAGE CONTROL REGULATIONS HAS BEEN PREDICTED

OTTAWA—Revision of the government's wage control regulations, provided by a change in the chairman of the national war labor board, is being predicted in influential quarters.

Reports, as far lacking official confirmation, are that Mr. Justice M. B. Archibald, chairman of the national board, will resign shortly to become chief justice of the Ontario court.

The other two members of the board now are George Hodgson, Montreal, representing the employers, and J. A. McLaughlin of Montreal representing the employees.

Revision of the wage control order is not expected until further study is given proposed changes. Recent government action has made it apparent that the present policy cannot keep in continued.

In two current disputes affecting the rubber and steel industries, the federal labor department has attempted a compromise but failed with the parties in an effort to reach a settlement.

Both disputes are primarily based on union demands for increased wages and shorter hours. Under the present legislation the national war labor board is authorized to make such demands.

The complications that may arise from the plan of appointing commissioners are particularly apparent in the case of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America (U.B.C.A.).

The U.B.C.A. has a large membership in the three Canadian provinces. Two of them (Quebec and Ontario) are wage agitators in the steel industry.

BUSINESS THRIVES

Whitney-Woman Has Great Success With Baby-Sitting Agency

WINNIPEG—The business conducted by Mrs. Betty Latchford of Winnipeg is one of desperation but it is also one of success.

It all started when Mrs. Latchford wanted to go out with her husband one evening and couldn't find anyone to look after her children.

She decided that if Whitney did not have a baby-sitting agency it was high time for one—of her own to start.

Her first step was to advertise for suitable and reliable attendants. The advertisement brought more than 200 replies including a number of men.

The applicants were interviewed and a number chosen.

One of her first customers was a lady named Mrs. W. J. Latchford, who had children in her hands. A helper was sent to look after the children.

Both parties were pleased with the results and the agency has since been established before review and is in full operation.

MILL FELP FARMERS

More German Prisoners Of War To Assist Seed Growers

OTTAWA.—Four hundred more German prisoners of war have been made available for the cultivation of sugar beets in Manitoba and Ontario, with 1120 the number allocated to Manitoba and providing Ontario with 120.

It should be explained that the distribution of these prisoners of war was decided upon by the representatives of the provincial and federal agricultural departments and not by the labor department," said Mr. Mitchell.

The minister made no reference to the statement made two weeks ago in the House by Hon. J. C. Gervin, regarding the government's plan to ship into this country several thousand Polish soldiers who would not return to their own country.

It is understood that agreements for bringing the men into Canada are in the hands of Hon. J. C. Gervin, and it is unlikely they will reach this country until well into the next winter months.
